State Board of Election Commission Meeting, February 19, 2014. 1:00 p.m.

Assistant Director Shawn Camp gave a general review of the meeting agenda and board discussion. Secretary of State Mark Martin wanted to discuss and give his interpretation of the Attorney General opinion regard the processing of absentee ballots and to “say what was on his heart.” Martha Adcock, Legal Counsel for the secretary of state, then offered arguments to support Secretary Martin’s interpretation of Act 595 of 2013 as it related to processing absentee ballots without “Proof of Identity” (POI). Ms. Adcock asserted in her interpretation the ambiguity of the absentee ballot processing procedures determining the position of the ballot if no POI is included upon return.

Chairman Boyle requested a schedule of SBEC meetings to stay abreast of the developments of the board proceedings and to attend meetings.

Meeting adjourned.
